MORE PROOFS

OF THE EFFICACY OF

Dr. Church's Cough Drops.

A Medicine unequalled by any other in the world, since first discovered by Doctor Church; it has restored to health many thousands of the most emaciated subjects, both Asthmatic and Consumptive that were ever known to exist both in Europe, America and the West Indies, and often when every other medicine had been used without effect, and the most eminent of the faculty consulted in vain. It is a sovereign, speedy and effectual remedy in Head Aches, Sore Throats, Catarrhs, Wheezings, Shortness of breath, Congested Phlegm, Ticklings in the throat, Spitting of blood, Tightness in the chest, Soreness of the breast & Hooping Cough, Stomach, &c. &c.

ASTHMAS & CONSUMPTIONS, and all disorders of the breast and lungs. Further proof of its efficacy, with a list of upwards of one thousand attested cases of cure, may be seen at the place of sale.

AFFIDAVIT.

City of New-York, &c.

William McCloughan resident of Gibb's alley, in the city of New-York, cooper, voluntary maketh oath that he was severely afflicted with a consumption for upwards of 18 years, that he laboured under the most inexpressible affliction with a violent cough and shortness of breath, that he could not lie down in his bed for weeks together, but was obliged to be propped up by pillows or in an armed chair, and in the day time unable to attend his business; that at length he was so reduced and wasted away, as to be scarce able to walk at all; that he had tried the skill of many respectable medical men, and had expended a very considerable sum of money, and has taken a great deal of medicines without effect. That at last he despaired of ever getting cured, till he, through recommendation, took Dr. Church's cough drops, from which he found very present relief, and by persevering in the use of them, he is now perfectly restored to health, and has had no return or symptom of his disorder since.

WILLIAM MCLOUGHAN.

Sworn to before me this 29th day of May, 1799.

Jacob De La Montagne, Alderman.

Copy of a Letter from capt. Henry.

Dear Sir,

In the year '95, I had the misfortune to break a blood vessel, which was succeeded by a severe complaint on my lungs, cough, shortness of breath and spitting up of matter and blood, with every other disagreeable symptom of a disorder of the lungs; indeed so afflicting was this disorder, that I could not rest at night, nor could walk 200 yards in the day, without stopping to cough and rest myself a number of times. This disorder continued to increase upon me, till I was much wasted in body, and exceedingly weak. Seeing your advertisements in the public papers, early in the last summer, I commenced taking your justly celebrated Cough Drops, which I persevered in the use of, for sometime; I have now the happiness of informing you, my lungs are perfectly sound; I have no shortness of breath, or spitting up of matter or blood; my cough is a little troublesome in the morning, but no other time. I am Sir,

Your's every respectfully,

WILLIAM HENRY.

New-York, April 3, 1799.

New-York, July 10, 1798.

To DR. CHURCH.

Sir,

For upwards of twelve years, I have laboured under a severe cough, shortness of breath, spitting of matter from my lungs, and often clotted blood, till at length I was so reduced as to be unable to walk across my room, and owing to the violence of my cough and shortness of breath could get no rest day or night. Hearing of your excellent medicine, the Cough Drops, I procured a bottle; I took a dose as soon as I got it, from which I found instantaneous relief, and by continuing it for three days, I felt God I am restored to perfect health. As I believe, you have been the instrument in the hands of Providence, by saving my life, I must entreat you to publish this for the benefit of any who may be in my situation, as I am confident it is one of the best medicines in the world for those complaints.

I am Sir, your grateful servant,

NICHOLAS STAGG.

EXTRACT FROM
"THE IMPEACHMENT."
A manuscript Tragedy.

Scene—The Street near the Government
House Elsinore.

Enter Frothy Ned, Blinky and Smockface.

Froth. The air bites shrewdly—it is very cold.

Blinky. It is a nipping and an eager air.

Froth. What hour now?

Blinky. I think it lacks of twelve.

Smock. No—it is struck.

Froth. Indeed! I heard it not; perhaps it was.

Thy little joints, which shivering with the cold,

Clink'd like icicles blown against each other,
By the keen north wind.

Blinky. Or perhaps

Yon Raggamuffin, passing near that lamp,
Pally'd my little Smockface with a frown

More chilling than the midnight air.

Smock. No—No—indeed I heard it.

Blinky. It then draws near the season

Wherein the Spirit held his wont to walk;
Hight Snibbor's Ghost.

What mean these lights, my friends.

Froth. The man we wish to ruin—He on whom

His country's hopes—his country's wishes rest,

Yet wakes, and studies by his midnight lamp.

Blinky. Is it a custom?

Froth. Ay, marry is it;

But to my mind, tho' I'm not native here,
(But in the manner born) it is a custom

Better for us, if broke, than in the observance.

His constant study for the public good,
Makes all his fires detested, by the virtuous.

They ye-e-e Traitors, and with swinish phrase

Soil our addition—and indeed it takes
From our achievements, tho' performed at height

The pith and marrow of our attribute.

Smock. Ah, Ah—look, look, look—
It comes.

(Smock falls.)

Enter Tinglat, with his face meal'd, a cord round his neck, and an old sail cloth round his shoulders, mimicking the Ghost of Snibbor.

Froth. Demons of darkest Erebus defend us!

Be thou a Spirit of Hell, or Mountaineer,
Bring'th then Geneva Drums, or new still'd Whisky;

Be all thy duties paid, or Excise cheated,
Thou com'st in to detestable a shape

That I'll drink with thee—I'll call thee Snibbor;

Victim—devoted victim.—Oh answer me;
Let me not burst in ignorance! But tell

Why thy dry bones, exalted in the air
Have burst their Gibbet? Why the chains

With which thy blood stained carcase was encircled

Have op'd their ponderous and iron links
To cast thee down again? What may this mean,

That thou dead corse, again, like Seaman throuded,
Reviv'st thus, the land that has disown'd you,

Making night hideous. And we, fools of party,

So horribly to taunt our disposition
With thoughts, indeed congenial to our souls

But far beyond the reaches of our daring.
Say, why is this? Wherefore? What shall we do?

Smock. It beckons you to go away with it,
As if, yourself were so much like a skeleton,
It, some impartment did desire, to you alone!

Blinky. Even with one eye, I view its courteous action,

It waves you to an high exalted Gibbet!

But do not go with it.

Smock. No, by no means.

Froth. It will not speak; then I will follow it.

Blinky. Do not my friend.

Froth. Why? What should be the fear?

I do not set my life at a pin's fee;
And for the Gallows, I've not weight enough

In my whole frame to break a neck, e'en small

As that of Smockface here. Away—
It waves me forth again. I'll follow it.

Blinky. What if it tempt you to the flood, my friend?

Froth. I'll change my form, not mind, and be a Shark.

Blinky. Or to the dreadful summit of the cliff

That beetles o'er his base into the sea?

Froth. Then I'll become what nature meant me for—

I'll rise on wings, and chatter as a Jack Daw.

Blinky. But should he take some other horrible form

Which might deprive your Sovereignty of reason

And draw you into madness? Think of it:
The very place puts toys of desperation
Without more motive, into every brain.

Froth. The place I'm in, has long since made me giddy,

But as for madness—as for desperation

Blinky knows full well, we all are mad and desperate. But see

It waves me still.

Go on—I'll follow thee. (to the Ghost)

Blinky. You shall not go, my friend.

Froth. Be ruled—You shall not go.

Froth. My fate cries out—Blinky drop your hold,

Or else I'll make a Ghost of you, for holding me.

Smockface is less than half a Ghost already.

Go on, I'll follow thee.

Scene changes—Sea coast and a Gibbet.

Re-enter Ghost and Frothy Ned. Frothy Ned's cloths appearing as if he had travelled through the bottom of Cloacina's Temple.

Froth. Whither wilt thou lead me?

Speak. I'll go no further.

Ghost. Mark me.

Froth. I will.

Ghost. The hour is almost come

When I, to sulphurous and tormenting flames Must render up myself.

Froth. Alas poor Ghost!

Ghost. Pity me not, but lend thy serious hearing

To what I shall unfold.

Froth. Speak—I am bound to hear.

Ghost. So art thou to impeach, when thou shalt hear.

Froth. What.

Ghost. I'm Snibbor's Spirit,

Permitted for a time to walk the night,
And aid the business of Hell and thee;

And for the day confined to fast in fires,
The dread atonement for those deeds of horror Done in my days of nature.

But that I am forbid

To tell the secret of my prison house,
I could a tale unfold, whose lightest word

Would harrow up thy soul—freeze thy thin blood,

Make thy two eyes, like stars, start from their spheres,

Thy jetty and pomatum'd locks to part
And each particular hair to stand on end

Like quills upon the fretful Porcupine.

Froth. Oh! name not Porcupine—the very sound

Shocks my whole frame—pierces my marrow bones,

And sets them all a clattering.

Ghost. Well; this eternal blazon must not be

To ears so nice as thine—Lift; lift; Oh, lift
If ever thou didst Insurrection love!

Froth. Oh, Mammoth's great historian;
Satan's friend!

Ghost. Lift to my foul and most enormous murders.

Froth. Murders!

Ghost. Murders, most foul, as in the best they are;

But these most foul, and most unnatural.

Froth. Haste me to know it; let my eager ears

Drink in the tale of Blood.

Ghost. I find thee apt.

And duller shouldst thou be than the fat weed
By blinky and Smockface rais'd, yelp'd Narcotia;

That rots itself in ease
On southern wharf, for want of foreign mart,
Wouldst thou not stir in this. Now hear.

'Tis given out, that I, in Denmark born,
From Danish port, in Danish vessel sailing,

Was by a prels gang taken; borne away
From friends and family; and forc'd to fight

Against the allies of my native land.
That nobly daring, in propitious hour

I hurl'd my proud oppressors to their fate
And gave myself to freedom, and my country;

And that for this I was deliver'd up
To chains and death; so the whole ear of Denmark

Is by a forged process of my birth
Rankly abus'd; but know thou gangling youth

The gang with whom thy Snibbor ship and fail'd

Were his own countrymen.

Froth. Oh my prophetic soul! a Briton?

Ghost. Not so my friend; but from a neighboring isle

For honor, valour, loyalty renown'd
I came call'd—yet in her breast she bears

A savage race; for blood and murder fam'd
Bogtrotters call'd; and of this race am I.

Froth. And many of them have we here in Denmark.

I like the race; and bear them in my heart
They're fit for treasons, stratagems and spoils;

Were there more of you?

Ghost. Ay; many more.

And these were all seduced
By thirst of gold, but more by thirst for blood,

To seize the ship, and murder all the crew,
Who would not join the purpose horrible.

But lo! methinks I scent the morning air
Maugre the stench, that comes, my friend, from you.

Brief let me be. Seated within his cabin
Our Captain's custom, after much fatigue,

On his secure hours, my comrades stole
With swords and daggers arm'd; whose fatal points

Hold such an enmity with blood of man
That swift as quicksilver they did course thro'

The natural gates and alleys of his body
And left him breathless; soon beside him lay

The loyal band who would not aid our purpose.

Thus were they, sudden, by their comrades hands

No reckoning made, but sent to their account

With all their imperfections on their head.

The ship we seiz'd and bore to Whiskerandos.

But Heaven wink'd not on the deed of horror.

For coming here into the state of Denmark.

Where many of my clan had found protection

My fame pursued me, and on some rotten notions

Of public faith, forsooth, and nation's honor

The sacred faith of treaties, and what not,
I amely your Snibbor's neck was yielded up

To necklace anodyne and gibbet chains—
Oh! horrible! Oh horrible, most horrible!

If thou hast funk within thee, bear it not.
Let not your servants lord it thus amongst you.

But see; the glow worm shews the matin near

And gins to pale his inefficual fire.

Impeach; impeach; impeach; remember me.

Exit Ghost.

Froth. Oh! what a filthy pickle I am in!

Oh! hold; let me wipe my hand,

And ye, my breeches, thaw not on the instant

But bear me stiffly up; remember thee;

Aye, thou poor Ghost; long as I hold a feat

In yonder corner hall; remember thee?

Yea; from the table of my memory
I'll wipe away all trivial fond records

That youth and vanity have copied there
And thy commandment all alone shall live

Within the book and volume of my napper;
Now to my word—It is

Impeach; impeach; impeach; remember me.

Commodore Truxton has fought and beaten a man of war of 58 guns, Thirty

Two Pounders, mounted on two decks, and crowded with men, to the number, it is said, of six hundred; with a frigate of 36,

18 pounders, and 300 men, and was prevented only by a stroke of ill-luck, from consuming the distinguished act of gallanty, by the capture of the enemy.

Saturday last being the day appointed by Congress for a general mourning, was observed in this city, according to the resolution of that body, by orations, eulogies, prayers, processions, &c.

General Macpherson's legion of volunteer troops in the service of the United States, was paraded and marched to the German church in Fourth street, having been joined in procession by the Order of Cincinnati, and the Officers of the Navy and Army.

Here, after a prayer by the Rev. Doctor

Rogers, an Oration was delivered at the appointment of the Cincinnati, by Major W.

Jackson, a member of that society.

An Eulogium on the character of General

Washington was delivered at the German

Lutheran church, before the Freemasons,

by the Rev. Dr. Magaw; and one at St.

Mary's church, by the Rev. Mr. Carr.

A pertinent Oration, was very eloquently pronounced in the afternoon, before the Washington Society, (a juvenile association)

by Master Jonathan Meredith, jun.

Major Jackson's oration occupied an hour and twenty minutes in the delivery. The President of the United States, the Vice-President, Members of the Senate, and Members of the House of Representatives;

His Excellency Robert Linton, Esq. Minister Plenipotentiary of His Britannic Majesty, and several other gentlemen of the Diplomatic Corps, honored the occasion with their presence.

A very numerous audience testified the most lively evidences of admiration and applause. We do not profess to be competent judges on such a question, but an higher and far more estimable tribute has been paid by the general voice. Gentlemen of the first attainments in science, concur in deciding this oration to be unrivalled in chasteness and elegance of composition, as in propriety, beauty, force and harmony of language.

The delivery of the orator was remarkably happy.

The Aurora tells us that the dissensions

in the Legislature have terminated in blows;

and that Doctor Logan has been beaten and laid up by Mr. Fisher.

The National Bankrupt Act, passed the House of Representatives on Friday, by the casting voice of the Speaker.

At a late hour last night a fire was discovered in Curtis's Brew-House, (Brew-er's Alley) but not till it had got to such a height as to baffle all endeavours to save any part of the building, which was very extensive.

The horror of the scene was heightened by the tottering walls which fell before several persons who were standing near them were able to make their escape; two men were lost in the ruins, and several very badly wounded. A stable and several houses which had escaped the ravages of the fire a few nights since, (for it happened not fifty yards from the former) were very much da-amaged.

Sixth Congress of the United States

At the First Session, begun and held at the City of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, on Monday, the second of December, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine.

AN ACT

To suspend in part, an act intitled "An Act to augment the Army of the United States; and for other purposes."

BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That all further enlistments, under the second section of an act intitled "An act to augment the army of the United States, and for other purposes," shall be suspended until the further order of Congress, unless in the recess of Congress, and during the continuance of the existing differences between the United States and the French Republic, war shall break out, between the United States and the French Republic, or imminent danger of invasion of their territory by the said Republic, shall, in the opinion of the President of the United States, be discovered to exist.

THEODORE SEDGWICK,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

THOMAS JEFFERSON,

Vice-President of the United States, and

President of the Senate.

Approved, February 20, 1800.

JOHN ADAMS,

President of the United States.

AN ORDINANCE

Making appropriations, and for raising supplies for the services of the city for the year one thousand eight hundred.

Section 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Citizens of Philadelphia in Select and Common Councils assembled, That the amount of arrearage taxes on the thirty-first day of December, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, shall stand charged and be applicable to make good the several appropriations of said taxes heretofore made and to no other purpose whatever provided, that for lighting, watching, watering and cleaning the city, chargeable to the herein after mentioned tax, there may be borrowed in case of need from the said arrearages in anticipation of the said tax, any sum not exceeding ten thousand dollars.

Section 2. Be it ordained and enacted, That any monies which may be borrowed as aforesaid, shall be repaid forthwith out of the first collections of the tax for the current year as they shall be paid into the Treasury; and the Treasurer shall thenceforth hold the same subject only to drafts on him for the proper objects of their original appropriation; and in order to prevent embarrassments, and that expenses may not be incurred before the receipt of taxes shall have provided commensurate means of payment, the city commissioners are enjoined and required to govern their proceedings accordingly, and to delay all business under their superintendence, the watching, lighting, watering and cleaning the city as being indispensable only excepted until there shall be a certainty of adequate support from the efficiency of the collections of the taxes.

Sec. 3. Be it ordained and enacted, That the City Commissioners shall forthwith, after the passing of this ordinance, raise by tax on the estates real and personal and on the professions of persons within the city agreeably to the last county assessment the full and entire sum of fifty-seven thousand five hundred dollars for the service of the year one thousand eight hundred, which shall be appropriated, in manner following, that is to say,

For supplying the deficiency in the tax provision of the year 1799, one thousand three hundred and fifteen dollars forty-four cents, For the payment of interest on certificates issued to subscribers to the water loan, four thousand two hundred dollars, For the payment of interest due and growing due on debts to the Banks of Pennsylvania and North America, one thousand two hundred dollars, For objects under the particular superintendence of the City Commissioners, viz.

No. 1. For the purchase of paving stone and for the repair of old pavements, one thousand six hundred dollars.

2. For the repair of unpaved streets carrying off stagnant waters, paving the interior of unpaved streets and of the gutters along the footway of any unpaved street after the proprietors of the lots for whose accommodation it shall be done shall give security to the commissioners that they will forthwith pave the footway and fix curb stones on the line thereof agreeably to ordinance, two thousand four hundred dollars.

3. For cleaning the city and washing the street gutters, eleven thousand two hundred and fifty dollars.

4. For repairing a subterraneous water course from Cedar-street to St. Peter's burial ground, and for the repair and cleaning of the docks and sewers generally, one thousand eight hundred and fifty dollars.

5. For lighting and watching the city, including the purchase of oil, repair of lamps, &c. eighteen thousand dollars.

6. For repairs of pumps and wells, two thousand five hundred dollars.

7. For any expense which may be incurred in regulating sewers and discharges of streets for carrying off water, &c. four hundred dollars.

8. For completing a circular road and planting trees in Center-square, one thousand six hundred and fifty dollars.

9. For salaries to the City Commissioners and their Clerks, as established by ordinance, two thousand eight hundred dollars.

10. For wood, candles, stationery and other office expenses of the City Commissioners, one hundred dollars.

11. For salaries to the Mayor, Recorder, High-constable, and the Clerks and Messengers of the Councils as established by ordinance, three thousand dollars.

12. For paying the constables for patrolling streets on Sabbath days, one hundred and fifty dollars.

13. For the incidental expenses of the Select and Common Councils, as printing, stationery, fuel, candles, &c. six hundred dollars.

14. For a residuary fund for preventing, correcting and removing nuisances, and for other contingent objects, which may occur under special resolutions of Councils, four thousand four hundred and seventy-eight dollars and fifty cents.

Sec. 4. Be it ordained and enacted, That the income of the corporate estates and interests which shall grow due and arise on the rental thereof in the year one thousand eight hundred, together with the clear net proceeds of the tolls of the bridge and ferry on Schuylkill shall stand charged with the following appropriations:

No. 1. For the reimbursement of advances by the tax fund to the corporate fund in 1799, one hundred and sixty-five dollars ninety-two cents.

2. For reimbursing Henry Pratt and Thomas Allibone for their advances in improving Salsfras-street landing in 1797, the balance of their accounts, supplied with interest to amount to three hundred and sixty dollars.

3. For the Clerks of the markets, their salaries as established by ordinance, one thousand two hundred dollars.

4. For menial services of the markets, five hundred and sixty dollars.

5. For repairs and improvements of city property, seven hundred dollars.

6. For meeting contract engagements for the maintenance of two Steam engines and a supply of water by their operation, eight thousand dollars.

Sec. 5. Be it ordained and enacted, That the city Commissioners shall open number and keep distinct accounts of the several objects under their superintendence as the same are herein before designated and appropriated, for & in the certificates which they may issue for presentment to the Mayor they shall clearly and distinctly express for what subject of appropriation the sums certified to be due are chargeable, and each certificate shall be numbered in conformity to the account to which it may properly appertain, and all orders on the Treasury shall in like manner designate the number and the account of appropriation to which they shall be placed; and the Treasurer shall open number and keep clear and distinct accounts for the different items of appropriation, and charge the same respectively in conformity to the specification of the orders passed on him for payment.

Sec. 6. Be it ordained and enacted, That the city Treasurer shall at all reasonable times render to the Mayor and to the city Commissioners, when by them or either of them required for their better information and government statements, of the sums paid and carried to the debit of the appropriated objects, and of the further amount which can be drawn for on account of the same.

ENACTED into an Ordinance at the City of PHILADELPHIA, on the twentieth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred.

KEARNY WHARTON,
President of the Common Council.
HENRY PRAT,
President of the Select Council.

Extract of a letter from a merchant in London dated the 15th of December 1799, to a friend in Philadelphia.

"I have wrote you sundry letters since I have had the pleasure of a line from you, some of which, I am sorry to say, I know to be captured. Premiums of insurance have advanced with us, say to 12, 15, 15 guineas, with returns on your homeward and outward bound; too many of whom have been captured latterly for these premiums to support."

Extract of a letter from Lieut. Haswell of the Boston frigate, to the Secretary of the Navy, dated, Newport, Feb. 15, 1800.

"I have the honour of acquainting you with my late arrival in this port with the ship Two Angels, prize to the United States ship Bolton."

The Two Angels is a French built frigate, full rigged, corvette leste of Marquis, of about 400 tons—cargo chiefly coffee.

NEW-LONDON, February 19.

A few days before the last convoy failed, the United States ship Connecticut brought into Balleterre the French privateer brig Conquest of Italy, Capt. Langois, pierced for 18 guns, mounting twelve 9's and 6's, and 80 men.

In 24 hours the prize was refitted, and the 2d Lieut. of the Infurgent dispatched in her to Martinique, to solicit of the British Admiral Lord Seymour, a spar, to replace the foremast of the Infurgent, which had been sprung in a gale; the request was readily granted. The brig recaptured on her passage to Martinique, the Ship—, Capt. Dering, from Liverpool, bound to Norfolk: she was blown off the coast, and had been two days in possession of the French.

A French ship of four hundred tons, prize to the frigate Bolton has arrived at New Port; she is loaded with coffee supposed to be worth 100,000 dollars.

Two days before the fleet failed, the United States ship Baltimore carried into St. Kitt's a French privateer schooner, with 65 men; she was pierced for 14 guns, but they were chiefly thrown over. She arrived afterwards at St. Thomas's. The Baltimore had one man killed and one wounded by the Frenchman.

On board the privateer when captured were Capt. Jere. Williams of Norwich, Captain Nevins of Salem, and Capt. D. Truman, of New-Haven, who had been taken by her. Capt. Robert Williams, in a schooner from Middletown, was taken by a French privateer, and afterwards chased ashore on Desfada, and burnt by the Connecticut.

The Connecticut for sailing bears the palm in the American Navy.

The loop of war Trumbull, Capt. Jewett, lying in this harbour, is nearly manned, and will be ready for sea in a few days: Capt. J. identified to great praise for the dispatch with which he has fitted out this excellent ship.

MR. FENNO,

THE stale London art of puffing one's self into notice, being but little understood in this country, one Doctor Mitchell, a Traveller, I suppose, has very generously undertaken to instruct the citizens of New-York, gratis. See the New-York Gazette of yesterday for the curious & interesting account of the miraculous escape of the Doctor, who boasts in his pre-fatory observations of having been sick of the same disorder under which General Washington died. O wonderful! wonderful!

IMPEACHMENT.

To our trusty and well beloved Male contents of whatever colour.

Forasmuch as it is the original, equal, and unalienable right of the servants of the servants of the sovereign sheep of society, to carp at the measures of wife, good and brave men in all times, and without any lack of railing, misrepresentations, folly and falsehood, it is therefore judged expedient that the exercise of the right, or rather the wrong of impeachment should now become universal.

It has been recently agreed in our refuted club of servant democrats, acting consistently in the true spirit of baseness, servility, and whatever else is despicable in the menial character, that the President be impeached, the Federal Government be impeached, the English language be impeached, and the hangman, the rope, and the gallows be impeached, especially the latter, because they are dreadfully inimical to servant murderers, pirates, rogues, and rascals. Another impeachable act has recently occurred, & it is extremely proper and humane, and analogous to republican gratitude to denounce the action, and guillotine the actor.

This is the audacious conduct of one Truxton, who has had the unparalleled presumption to attack a dearly beloved French ship, the property of the dearest of our friends, the sweetest sister, the kindest relation, the lovely, honest, undimblest, generous girl, Gallia. This varlet of a sea captain has rudely treated a fifty gun ship, one of the playthings of the aforesaid Gallia. The Frenchman has lost his rigging, has lost his men, has lost his honor, and lastly has lost himself in shameful flight, and all in consequence of the gallantry of the above Truxton, and the noble courage of his brave tars.

—Wherefore as the said captain and crew have, in the genuine spirit of Sir Edward Hawke, and Blake and Frobisher, fought Frenchmen and beaten them, and moreover, as the said Truxton has since shaped his course to the detested British island Jamaica, there to refit and recruit among generous, grateful and high-minded friends, all which is hateful to good Democrats to the Ghost of Robbins, and to our sweet smiling sister Gallia, the mother of philosophy, the nurse of deism, the midwife of murder and the concubine of reason; therefore we strictly command you, and each of you to impeach hourly and daily the said Truxton, call for his papers, impeach the Constellation, impeach each star on her flag, impeach the man at the helm and the men at their guns, impeach the boatswain's whistle, and let not a tar bucket escape impeachment.

Witness Ourselves at Philadelphia, in our rocking chair of Epicurus, MAMMOTH.

By his Philosophy's command,
NAPPER NOODLE, Secretary.

WATER-OFFICE.

Centre Square, February 5, 1800.

IN compliance with the instructions of the Committee for watering the city, and with my own inclinations, every possible assistance and information has been given to those citizens who have visited the Works during their progress. The Engines are now arrived, and are immediately to be put up, and it is hoped that it will be thought reasonable and just, both to the Public, and to the Contractor for the Engines, that the workmen should not be interrupted. As a very few months will fully gratify the curiosity of the citizens, by showing them the Engines in full operation, a temporary exclusion of all visitors from the Engine houses cannot appear improper.

A POEM,

Sacred to the memory of

GENERAL WASHINGTON.

By RICHARD ALFOP.

AMONG the excellent Eulogies on the character of this illustrious man, we presume it will be highly gratifying to the people of the United States to learn, that the task has been undertaken in verse, by a Poet of such distinguished genius as Mr. Alfop.

Why on this day, when erst in smiles array'd,
Each cheerful mind the signs of joy display'd,
Why sounds you passing knell in accents flow,
And thrills each heart in unison of woe,
Why drops you veteran soldier's hoary head,
His honest pride, his wonted ardour fled?
These marks of woe no private loss the cause,
No private grief the tear from millions draws;
But all a guardian friend, and fire deplore—
THE GREAT THE IMMORTAL WASHINGTON'S NO MORE.

The above Poetical Eulogy will be for sale, on Saturday the 22d of this month, at the Bookstore of William Young, corner of Chestnut and Second Streets, Philadelphia.

Public Notice
IS HEREBY Given, pursuant to the act of Congress passed on the 11th day of February, one thousand eight hundred, entitled "An act giving further time to the holders of Military Warrants, to register and locate the same" to wit:

First, That warrants granted for military services performed during the late war will be received at the Treasury until the 25th day of the present month inclusive for the purpose of being registered, agreeably to the mode prescribed in the notification from this Department on the 11th of March, 1799.

Second, The priority of location will be determined by lot immediately after the 25th of the present month, and the holders of registered Warrants shall on Monday the 3d of March, 1800, in the order in which the priority of location shall be determined by lot as aforesaid, personally or by their agent, designate in writing at the office of the Register of the Treasury the particular quarter townships elected by them respectively—and such of the said holders as shall not designate their locations on said day, shall be postponed in locating such warrants to all other holders of registered warrants.

The only Medicine in the world that cures the most inveterate Itch in four hours.

The genuine patent Scotch Ointment.
For pleurisy, safety, expedition, ease and certainty, is infinitely superior to any other medicine, for the cure of
THE ITCH.

It is so certain in its operation, that it has never failed in any one instance whatever, of effectually curing that disagreeable disorder in four hours, by one application only, though applied to many thousands in England, Scotland and Ireland. It does not contain one particle of mercury, (see the affidavit) but may be applied with the greatest safety, to the most delicate lady during pregnancy, or the tenderest infants.

The proprietor is so certain of its infallibility, that he engages to return the money to any person on whom it did not perform a cure in four hours.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.
So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, as an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellant minerals (the basis of other lotions) and of unparalleled efficacy in preventing and removing cutaneous blemishes of the face and skin of every kind, particularly, freckles, pimples, pits after small pox, inflammatory redness, furuncles, tetter, ring worms, sun burns, prickly heat, premature wrinkles, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural, insensible perspiration, which is essential to health—yet its effects are speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and smooth, improving the complexion and restoring the bloom of youth; never failing to render an ordinary countenance beautiful, and a handsome one more so.

Sovereign Ointment for the Itch,
Warranted an infallible and immediate cure, at once using; being the most speedy, effectual and pleasant remedy ever offered to the public, and for the satisfaction of the timorous, the proprietor maketh oath, that this ointment does not contain a single particle of mercury or any other pernicious ingredient in its composition, and may be used with the most perfect safety by pregnant women and on infants newly born.

Patent Indian Vegetable Specific,
For the cure of Venereal Complaints of every description.
An extensive trial of near four years has proved the vegetable specific to be effectual in expelling the venereal virus, however deeply rooted in the constitution, and has restored health to many who have been brought to the verge of the grave by the improper administration of mercury. Within this period upwards of eight thousand patients have experienced its salutary effects.

With the medicine is given a description of the symptoms which obtain in every stage of the disease, with copious directions for their treatment, so as to accomplish a perfect cure in the shortest time and with the least inconvenience possible.

HAMILTON'S Worm destroying Lozenges,
Which have, within nine months past, relieved upwards of EIGHTEEN THOUSAND PERSONS of all ages in various complaints arising from worms and from foulness or obstructions in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar title so commonly complained of, as operating with a degree of violence, sufficient, not only to kill worms, but sometimes to endanger the patient's life; on the contrary, a peculiar excellence of this remedy is, its being suited to every age and constitution, contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is so mild in its operation, that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady, or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders.

At the place of sale may be seen many remarkable cases of cures, the authenticity of which any person may ascertain, either by letter or personal application—not being performed in Europe, nobody knows where—but at home.

Persons wishing to procure any of the above medicines genuine, must apply ONLY as above—and likewise observe, that the signature of Lee & Co. (who are appointed the general agents for the United States) is pasted on the outside of each, without which they cannot be genuine.

At the above place may be likewise had,
GOWLAND'S LOTION.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.
March 11th, 1799.
PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN.
Pursuant to the act of Congress passed on the 11th day of June, one thousand, seven hundred and ninety six, entitled "an act regulating the grants of land appropriated for military services, and for the society of United Brethren for propagating the gospel among the Heathen" and the act supplementary to the said recited act passed on the second day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine—

I. THAT the tract of Land herein after described, namely, "beginning at the North West corner of the seven ranges of townships, and running thence fifty miles due south, along the western boundary of the said ranges;—thence due West to the Main Branch of the Scioto river;—thence up the Main Branch of the said river to the place where the Indian boundary line crosses the same;—thence along the said boundary line to the Tuscaroras branch of the Muskingum river at the crossing place above Fort Lawrence;—thence down the said river, to the point where a line run due west from the place of beginning, will intersect the said river;—thence along the line so run to the place of beginning;" has been divided into townships of five miles square, and fractional parts of townships; and that plats and surveys of the said townships and fractional parts of townships are deposited in the offices of the Register of the Treasury and Surveyor General, for the inspection of all persons concerned.

II. The holders of such warrants as have been or shall be granted for military services performed during the late war, are required to present the same to the Register of the Treasury, at some time prior to the twelfth day of February in the year, one thousand eight hundred, for the purpose of being registered; No registry will however be made of any less quantity than a quarter township, or four thousand acres.

III. The priority of location of the warrants which may be presented and registered in manner aforesaid, prior to the 12th day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred, will immediately after the said day, be determined by lot, in the mode described by the act first recited.

IV. The holders of registered warrants, shall on Monday the 17th day of February, in the year 1800, in the order of which the priority of location shall be determined by lot as aforesaid, personally, or by their agents, designate in a writing at the office of the Register of the Treasury, the particular quarter townships elected by them respectively, and such of the said holders as shall not designate their locations on the said day, shall be postponed in locating such warrants to all other holders of registered warrants.

V. The holders of warrants for military services sufficient to cover one or more quarter townships or tracts of four thousand acres each; shall, at any time after Monday the 17th day of February, 1800 and prior to the first day of January, 1802, be allowed to register the said warrants in manner aforesaid, and forthwith to make locations thereon on any tract or tracts of land not before located.

VI. All warrants or claims for lands on account of military services, which shall not be registered and located before the first day of January, 1802, are by the supplementary act of Congress herein before recited, passed on the second day of March, 1799, declared to be forever barred.

Given under my hand at Philadelphia, the day and year above mentioned.

To the nervous, weak, debilitated, sedentary and consumptive,
IS RECOMMENDED, THE CELEBRATED BOTANICAL TEA,
Infused of Foreign Tea.

THIS Tea is universally approved of in preference to foreign tea, as the most pleasant, wholesome, enlivening, invigorating, and powerful restorative ever adopted, for persons of all ages, but particularly those of the above description; as it will infallibly strengthen, and eventually repair a bad constitution.

It is taken for breakfast instead of foreign tea, and as our first aliment in the morning is designed to recruit the waste of the body from the night's insensible perspiration; it is well known, and an important fact which ought to be borne on the mind of every one, that foreign teas are inadequate to such purposes, as all will allow; it unnerves and wears the substance of the solids. This substitute is professionally approved as a salutary and nourishing diet, or as a morning and afternoon beverage.

THE BOTANICAL TEA
is singularly efficacious in all cases of inward weakness, trembling or shaking of the hands, loss of appetite, (particularly in the morning) depression of spirits, windy complaints. It speedily relieves the head and stomach in gouty or rheumatic cases; and in cases of weak digestion, but particularly after making too free with the constitution, by an immoderate use of wine, spiritous liquors, or any intemperance; it is happily suited to hot climates, and is adopted and approved of by some of the first families in the United States and in the West Indies, for its nourishing and invigorating properties; and in bilious cases where the appetite has failed, it is a sovereign remedy.

As proofs of the evil tendency from the use of foreign teas, is subjoined the opinion of some of the first physicians in Europe.

ON FOREIGN TEA.
"The cause of the palsy is drinking too much tea; many imagine tea has no ill effect upon the nerves, this however is a mistake: it effects the nerves, which is evident from its causing the hands to shake, preventing sleep, occasioning giddiness, dimness of sight, &c. &c."

Dr. BUCHAN.

"Strong infusions of India Tea, not only unnerve but destroy the bodily functions."

Dr. H. SMITH.

And in another publication, Dr. Hugh Smith says, "Tea is hurtful both to the stomach and nerves; it causes phrenitis, delirium, apoplexies, and other disorders of the brain, which are produced by the nerves being thus disarranged and debilitated, the digestive faculty of the stomach is much weakened, and the body failing of the recruiting juices, mult tend to emaciation and the whole frame thus rendered one system of distress and infirmity."

The justly celebrated Dr. Tillot says, "This fashionable beverage, India Tea, is extremely pernicious, it destroys the strength of the stomach, the viscera, the blood, the nerves, and eventually the whole body."

Dr. Molliere says, "In bilious complaints, tea is extremely hurtful."

Dr. Fothergill, "Tea is very offensive to the lungs, and impedes respiration; it is therefore highly improper for persons who have a difficulty of breathing, or any complaint of the lungs or nerves."

Dr. Saunders says, (see his Medical Memo.) "Indian tea renders men impatient and women barren; hence we may account for the persons in the higher circles having few children, and those in general very feckly and unhealthy."

For more accounts of this tea, see the second edition of Dr. Church's pamphlet.

This botanical tea is calculated to produce the contrary effects, is the result of long and indefatigable study and experience, and by perseveringly adopting its use, will be found to answer the effects herein mentioned.

It is cheaper than India tea—one packet at 75 cents, will last one person for breakfast nearly one month—cannisters containing eight packets, five dollars.

* * * The celebrated BOTANICAL TEA is prepared only by Dr. James Church, at his Dispensary, No. 137 Front Street, near the Fly-Market, New York, and sold wholesale and retail by Messrs. H. and P. Rice, 16 South Second Street, Philadelphia, and Mr. Jas. Rice, Baltimore.

ADDRESS
To Parents, Tutors and Guardians of Youth, by
S. SOLOMON, M. D. F. R. S. S.

Every person, young and old, should purchase this book, there being scarcely an individual who is not interested in some part of it.—In particular it is recommended to young men and boys; as an early attention to the latter may serve to guide them against a fatal rock on which thousands have split, and be the means of preserving their bodies from disease, and also their souls, their minds, and all their faculties from destruction.

This truly interesting work has been the labour of many years experience and observation on the calamitous consequences of a secret and destructive vice, to obtain a remedy against which, the Doctor has devoted a principal part of his life. No proprietors of Boarding Schools or Academies should be without it.—(Price one Dollar.)
